Clubs and Leagues

Dear All,

Please find below your weekly update, including information about the NatWest Leaders event taking place today.

There are inevitable changes that are required to the latest COVID-19 guidance to keep in line with latest Government announcements. We are working with Government to issue these as soon as possible.

NatWest Women in Business - Thursday 1 October

Unlocking Potential

Virtual Event on Zoom

Thursday 1st October, 2020

17:00 - 18:30

This evening at 17:00, NatWest are hosting an exciting virtual event around unlocking the potential for women in business with some amazing guests including Clare Connor and Kate Cross of the England Cricket team. We would love you to join, and would encourage you to share the registration link with any of your networks as well.

Panel one – Why leadership skills can begin in childhood

Our discussion will review the Chance to Shine research, the role cricket can play in helping girls develop leadership skills (and why) and what opportunities need to be made available to girls as well as boys to help develop female leaders in the future

Panel 2 – Breaking boundaries in leadership

In this panel we'll speak to women who have broken boundaries to become leaders in their field. Did they know they would lead from when they were young, how did they reach the top and what advice to they have for future female leaders?

Women's Big Cricket Month - Thank You

A huge thank you to all those who supported our Women's Big Cricket Month during September. There were over 440 activities delivered by the cricket network throughout the month and it was incredible to see and hear all the stories of those taking part and heartwarming to see the power of the cricket community come together to celebrate!
